

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

YONKERS.

James J. Ford, a well-known business man of this city, died on Sunday at his home, No. 5 Undercliff-st., after an illness of a year. He was fifty-one years old, and came to this country from Ireland about twenty-five years ago. The funeral will be held to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The Yonkers Board of Trade, which has had temporary quarters in the Council Chamber at Manor Hall for several years, moved yesterday into the rooms recently occupied by the Receiver of Taxes. These have been thoroughly renovated and make a convenient office for the Board. E. V. Loring is the new president.

The junior right to represent the Palisade Boat Club in the races on the Hudson River next Monday is working hard and getting ready to meet the competition. The boat race is to be run on the Hudson River on Saturday afternoon this week till Thursday, when the members will go into their training quarters at the Harbor.

The Yonkers Auxiliary of the Red Cross will be held in the Holman Inn Club. In the absence of Mrs. Sherman, the chairman, Mrs. Sherman is in charge. Workers and material are needed. After this month the society will meet in the Woman's Institute in Palisade-avenue.

WHITE PLAINS.

The will of Eliza Jane Ryder, of Saxe Sing, has been filed in the Surrogate's office. George Gregory, of Yorktown, is executor. The will of Isaac Pappard, of the town of Harrison, George T. Bevington, executor, was also filed.

A special meeting of the managers of the Westchester County Agricultural Society was held yesterday morning in the court room for the purpose of making arrangements for the annual fair, which opens on September 25. Persons intending to offer articles or animals of any kind for competition are requested to turn in 5 with an application at least one week before the first day of the exhibition.

A meeting of the White Plains branches of the Red Cross will be held this afternoon in the parish house of St. John's Episcopal Church.

Lawyers and others having business to transact at the county seat on their return after the summer vacation will find that the courthouse has been repainted throughout. New floors have been laid in the main corridors and the main courtroom has been repainted and improved. Work on the county jail is still dragging along, and it will be some time yet before it will be finished.

SING SING.

Considerable interest is being manifested over the question as to who will be the next deputy postmaster. At the present time Henry H. Reynolds, a Democrat, is holding over under Postmaster McNally, and in his place there are two prominent applicants—Urgent Trust Co. Edward H. Hurd, who is personal friend of the postmaster, and George Leary, son of Thomas Leary who was an opponent for the postmastership. As a peace offering to Mr. Leary, sr., a member of the Republican party, it is proposed that upon his retirement his son should receive the appointment, while Postmaster McNally seems to take the attitude that the matter is one best left to his personal preferences. It is reported that Hurd is a partner in a keeper in the State prison, while Mr. Leary, who served in the postoffice as clerk some years ago, is now engaged in the real estate and insurance business with his father.

MOUNT KISCO.

Ass. W. Young, one of the oldest and best-known residents of Northern Westchester County, died at his home, in Millwood, on Sunday. He was born in this county seventy-seven years ago. His funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon in the Friends' Meeting House, Chappaqua.

Colonel Clegg, of Colonel Roosevelt's Rough Riders, and his brother, Winthrop Cowdin, of the 12th Regiment, New-York Volunteers, have returned home on furloughs.

LARCHMONT.

The cottages and clubs of Larchmont Manor were ablaze last night with fireworks and decorations in honor of the annual parade of the Fire Department. The Larchmont Fire Department has one of the finest volunteer equipments in the country. The engines and hose-cars cost more than $10,000, and nearly two hundred wealthy club and business men are always on hand at the annual inspection.

The parade was headed by the band of the Larchmont Square by William H. Campbell, Chief of the Larchmont Department; Commissioner Scannell and Chief MacAdam and Bonner, of the New-York Fire Department, and Mayor Fiske of Mount Vernon.

The affair was opened by a dinner and entertainment at the Bevan House.

BRONXVILLE.

Eugene Underhill, son of the late Lawrence O. Underhill, for fifty years station agent and postmaster at Bronxville, was found dead in his home yesterday afternoon. Mr. Underhill had been living alone and Conner Manning of Mount Vernon, who was called, thinks he died on Saturday night. Mr. Underhill appeared much depressed, and it is said had been drinking heavily.

TARRYTOWN.

It is believed that a citizens' committee will be appointed to hold a reception for the Tarrytown boys who went to the war, and arrangements are being made to call a public meeting for that purpose.

LOCAL BUSINESS COMPLICATIONS.

Schedules of Edwin C. Burt & Co., manufacturers of shoes at No. 92 to 98 Centre-st., show liabilities $84,646 nominal assets, $81,800 cash and open account $34,453, making total nominal schedules of Henry L. Clark, $160,000. The principal partners are the Clark brothers, who show no assets and liabilities, $60,000 of which $42,500 is to the firm.

SLIGHT REACTION IN STOCKS.

LITTLE DANGER OF EXCESSIVE MONEY RATES—BUYING OF GOLD IN LONDON.

Transactions on the Stock Exchange yesterday were subjected to decreasing influences, and as a result there was one of those slight reactions which every bull movement is bound to experience. One of the most important factors in the situation yesterday was the fear of stiffer money rates. Saturday's long statement showing a further decrease of over $2,000,000 in the surplus reserves of the Associated Banks, was not of a character to inspire confidence. Many of the leading stocks fell 2 per cent, while the whole list showed declines of a mere or less important nature. The apprehension induced by the statement seems to have given way before the day ended, when it became known that large shipments of gold for importation to this country had been engaged from the Bank of Philadelphia, and that the amount of gold sent out to foreign countries had been bought in the open market. The best financial experts in the Street are unanimous in the opinion, however, that there is little if any danger of a general panic developing. It is of course true that some of the gold sent out to foreign countries has been bought from London, if necessary. There appears to be little doubt that sufficient gold could be obtained to keep money from advancing beyond legal limits. Gold money is held firmly at 2 per cent.

The total number of shares sold on the Stock Exchange yesterday was 9,000, which is rather below the average for the past few days. The market is working hard and getting ready for the great day when the stock market will open again.

The Yankees Auxiliary of the Red Cross will be held in the Holman Inn Club. In the absence of Mrs. Sherman, the chairman, Mrs. Sherman is in charge. Workers and material are needed. After this month the society will meet in the Woman's Institute in Palisade-avenue.
